Position: Full-time Worker-Member
January 28, 2019

The Metanoia Farmers Worker Cooperative is now accepting applications for one full-time worker-member.

The Metanoia Farmers Worker Cooperative operates a Community Shared Agriculture program (CSA) at the CMU Farm, located on the campus of Canadian Mennonite University. The CSA provides families with weekly boxes of vegetables grown at the CMU Farm for 13-15 weeks of the summer.

As a worker-member, you will contribute to all the operations of the CSA program and participate in making decisions about the farm and cooperative through a consensus-based decision-making model.

Applications are due by Feb. 8th. Application forms can be found on our website: metanoiafarmers.ca. Please be aware that the cooperative is only accepting one new worker-member this year.
